

Women's Getaway

New Orleans French Quarter Festival

April 10–13, 2008

Come and enjoy 150 musical performances on fifteen stages throughout the French Quarter. With nearly 60 food and beverage booths, most selections are $5.00 or under, it's a great way to try some of the best restaurants. We are staying at the Hotel Monteleone located in the French Quarter; A Historic and Literary Landmark.

April 10, 2008 Thursday

Check-in at the charming Hotel Monteleone. This Four Diamond Award hotel has gone through a multimillion-dollar renovation. The lobby has crystal chandeliers and a hand-painted ceiling and don't forget to visit the world famous revolving Carousel Piano Bar and Lounge. Tonight we meet for a Welcome Dinner and get to know the rest of the group - of wonderful, interesting, fun women!

April 11, 2008 Friday

After our buffet breakfast, at the Hotel Monteleone, we meet for our City Tour. The rest of the day is free to enjoy the Festival, visit the hotel's spa, shop or sightsee, Imagine the Possibilities... The evening is free, but there will be an optional group dinner.

April 12, 2008 Saturday

Today we enjoy the Jazz Brunch Buffet at the Court of Two Sisters. A historic restaurant with a strolling trio playing real New Orleans jazz. After brunch we ferry across the river to Mardi Gras World, a backstage look at the making of Mardi Gras. Spend the rest of the day enjoying the music and food of the Festival. Make a stop at Café Du Monde, since 1862 serving café au lait and beignets – open 24 hours a day.

Our Farewell Dinner will be held at Antoine's Restaurant. Since 1840 their excellent French-Creole cuisine, service and atmosphere have combined to create an unmatched dining experience for both locals and visitors to New Orleans.
